MELANIE'S FINE FOODS DEBUTS AT 2003 WINTER FANCY FOOD SHOW WITH AWARD WINNING BIG ACRES® MARINADE & BARBEQUE SAUCES

Company Posts 89% Revenue Increase in 2002

San Carlos, CA.- Melanie's Fine Foods, Inc, owner of Big Acres® Marinade & Barbecue Sauces, a line of all natural, preservative- and fat-free marinade and barbeque sauces has announced an 89% increase in revenues for the period April 2002 to January 2003 as compared to the same period in the prior year. Revenues and distribution skyrocketed after the purchase of the business by Melanie's Fine Foods from B&B Enterprises in April 2002.

The line includes a three-time, award winning Teriyaki marinade and Hot & Spicy and Rich & Mild barbecue sauces. The Company's products attribute their all-natural classification to the use of great tasting ingredients such as natural honey, dark molasses, pure maple syrup coupled with real chipotle peppers, ginger, and orange peel.

"We are very pleased that since our purchase of the business from B&B Enterprises we have been able to grow the distribution and sales of Big Acres Sauces. We anticipate continued growth for 2003," said Melanie Yunk, President, Melanie's Fine Foods. "Big Acres Sauces sell themselves. More than 90% of our prospects who taste these sauces buy them," said Kent Yunk, Vice President of Melanie's Fine Foods, Inc.

"Melanie's Fine Foods is the company to take this product nationwide...we are looking forward to a huge success", said Bill Dunlap, inventor of the Big Acres recipes.

Melanie's Fine Foods makes their debut at the 2003 Winter Fancy Food Show at Moscone Convention Center in San Francisco, California, on January 19th through the 21st in booth #5021.
